BILL BRIDGEWATER
Assistant Coach

The Leaksville High Red Devils closed one of their most successful football seasons in recent years with a smashing Thanksgiving Day 21-6 victory over the strong Draper Blue Bantams.

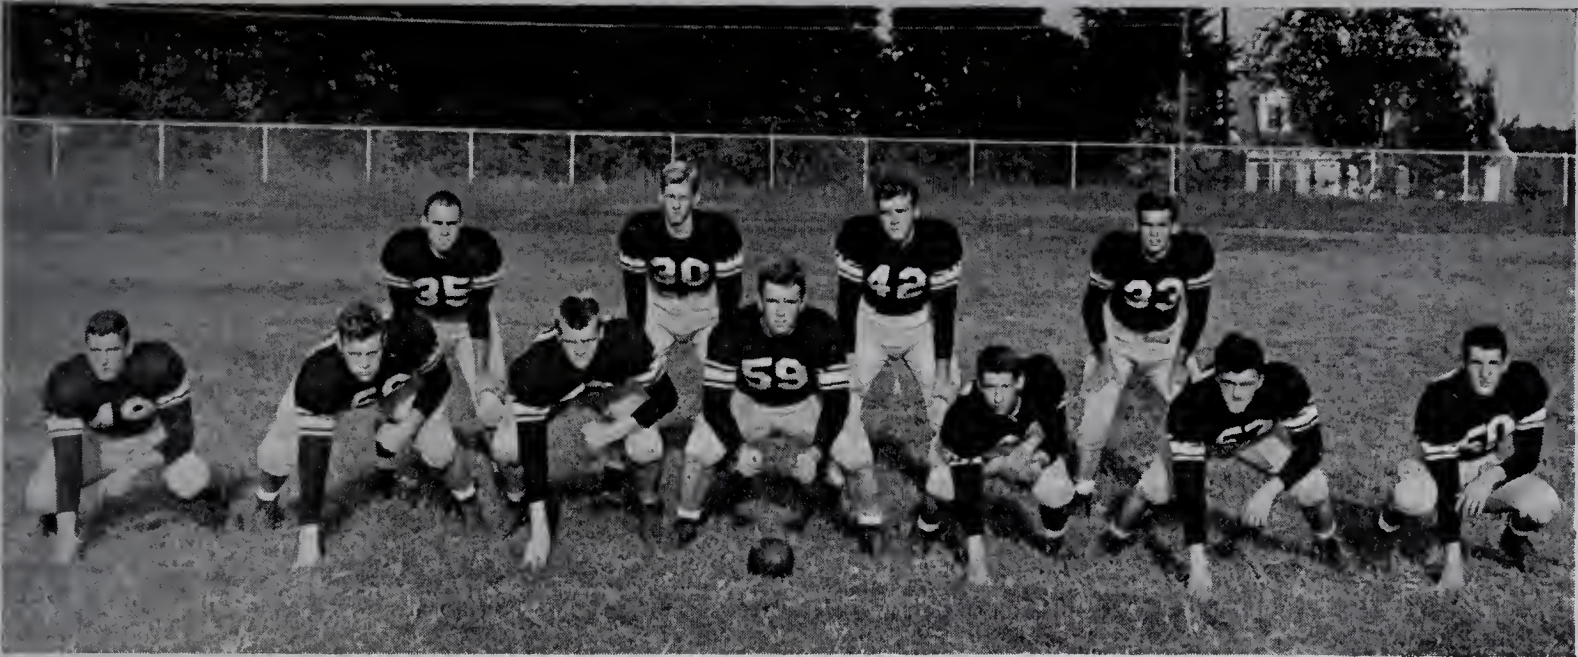

Although not boasting a very impressive record which shows three wins and seven losses, the Red Devils, under the tutelage of head coach, Ray Rhodes, and newly acquired assistant coach, Bill Bridgewater, gave the strongest class A teams in North Carolina and Virginia plenty of trouble. Mt. Airy, State class A champs of North Carolina, were only able to emerge victorious over the Devils by the score of 19-0 in a game that was much closer than the score indicated.

Local observers said the '48 Red Devils' aggregation was the best club the school has had in many years and an even better is expected in 1949. Watch for stronger football teams at Leaksville High in the future!

This year was very successful for a freshman. I made the honor roll and I simply loved all of my teachers. Mrs.
^{Mr. Hunt} Tenn was my home room teacher and I guess my favorite was Miss Tucker who taught me Civics and Physical Ed. I also plan to take Phys. Ed. next year because I like her so much.
I guess that's about all and I never thought I'd enjoy High School so much.
